QUOTES FROM POPE FRANCIS

To Enter His Wounds

How can I find the wounds of Jesus today? I cannot see them as Thomas saw them [who disbelieved until he put his fingers in the wounds of the Risen Christ]. I find them in doing works of mercy, in giving to the body — to the body and to the souls, but I stress the body — of your injured brethren, for they are hungry, thirsty, naked, humiliated, slaves, in prison, in hospital. These are the wounds of Jesus in our day.

We must touch the wounds of Jesus, caress them. We must heal the wounds of Jesus with tenderness... What Jesus asks us to do with our works of mercy is that Thomas asked: to enter his wounds.

Reflection: To encounter the poor is to encounter Christ. To give mercy is to partake of the experience of God's mercy. Don't underestimate your need to give to others. It is in giving mercy that we learn to receive it as well.

Easter Prayer

The veil of darkness
Transformed to the brightest light.

The most dreadful end
Became the most beautiful beginning.

The depths of despair
Fade to reveal hope everlasting.

The curse of death
Defeated by eternal life.

Thank you Lord, for the wonder of Easter.

The change in your pocket is making a difference for the children of Ghana!

To date we have sent $1,955.00 to help the children of Ghana. Please continue to put change in the container in the back of the church as we give it to Fr. Edward to send to his parish to help the children in Ghana. Fr. Edward is very grateful and expresses his Thanks!

The Garden of Prayer

The prayer garden committee is in process of coming up with a plan for the garden in the cemetery. It will be included with the unborn monument. Hopefully in the near future a columbarium will be included with the prayer garden. The plans are to have a quiet, peaceful place in the beauty of trees and flowers to rest and pray. We will continue to take orders for pavers. The cost is $100 per paver. Order forms are in the vestibule or in the office.
