QUOTES FROM POPE FRANCIS

The Will To Share

In the Eucharist Jesus does not give just any bread, but the bread of eternal life, he gives himself, offering himself to the Father out of love for us. But we must go to the Eucharist with those sentiments of Jesus, which are compassion and the will to share. One who goes to the Eucharist without having compassion for the needy and without sharing is not at ease with Jesus.

Reflection: Is there a relationship between the sacraments and your service to the poor? Do they spur you on to serve others? Does receiving these great gifts of mercy compel you to share this mercy with others? Take time after Mass this week to ask God how he wants you to share his mercy with those in need.

Please keep in your prayers the family of Howard Everson who passed away last week. May he rest in peace.

A Prayer for Those Affected by Hurricane Harvey

Dear Father in Heaven,
We worship and praise You for who You are: our Father who cares for each one of us always. We turn toward You now with trust and hope for our brothers and sisters who are affected by Hurricane Harvey. Please provide for the safety of all victims and their families.

Stretch forth Your hand, dear God, and bless all those who have been impacted by this hurricane. Thank you for the first responders who are risking their lives to save others at this very moment. Thank you also for the many, many people of good will, everyday heroes who have rescued and assisted the numerous victims and their families. O Lord, God of mercy and compassion, please protect all who are still in danger, and bring to safety those who are missing. Please care in a special way for the elderly, the sick, and those who were already homeless, or without support or resources, before this disaster.

Dear God, we ask this in the name of Jesus, who calmed the storms on the Sea of Galilee with one word. We trust You and thank You. Amen.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR HURRICANE HARVEY VICTIMS

As we pray for those afflicted by Hurricane Harvey, our bishop, Most Reverend John F. Doerfler, asks that all parishes and missions in the diocese take up a special collection to assist Catholic Charities USA in their response to this devastating storm. This collection will be taken in our parish during the weekend of September 9th and 10th, 2017. The magnitude of this disaster requires us to respond to the needs of those afflicted with urgency and compassion. Please keep all affected communities in your thoughts and prayers.
