Soon our bulletin will have a new look. The inside pages will be printed in black and white. This will be a great savings to our parishes, cutting the cost per bulletin by approximately 65%. We hope you enjoy the new black and white interior of the bulletin.

May our good Lord look upon them and bless them.

Please call the parish office to be included on or taken off the prayer list. 643-7671

There will be no faith formation classes for students in grades 7 & 8 on Wednesday, January 17th, due to middle school exams.
 There will still be classes for students in grades K—6 on this date.

QUOTES FROM POPE FRANCIS

Be Watchful

Eliminate the rancor that leads us to vengeance, and the laziness that leads us to existential euthanasia, the finger pointing that leads to arrogance, and the continual complaining that leads us to desperation.

Reflection: For today, write down three good things that have happened to you this week. When you feel tempted to complain today or any day this week, pull out the list, and send up a quick prayer of gratitude.

Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who made our Christmas celebration at St. Ignatius and Immaculate Conception so wonderful: to all who decorated our churches, to Berta and Bucky McPhee for donating the beautiful wreaths at St. Ignatius, to our musicians for the great music, to our children and Tim LaJoice for the special programs. Special thanks also to those quiet helpers who took the decorations down and put them away. Thank you for sharing your time and talents with our parishes.
