FROM THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

The Diocese of Marquette encourages individuals to report clergy, employee or volunteer sexual abuse of minors and others – no matter when the abuse occurred. For more than 15 years the diocese has had a “hotline” to Victims Assistance Coordinators for anyone to report abuse, which continues to be available.

Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Diocese of Marquette by calling one of the Victim Assistance Coordinators: Stephen Lynott at (844) 495-4330 or Diane Tryan at (844) 694-4362. Or by writing to Victims Assistance Coordinator, c/o Catholic Social Services of the UP, 1100 Ludington St. Suite 401, Escanaba MI 49829. Please mark the letter "Personal and Confidential" and indicate in your letter how you wish to be contacted (by phone or by letter). In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov. The diocese reports allegations to appropriate civil authorities. More information about the diocese's efforts to address abuse may be found under the “Protecting Children” dropdown menu on the homepage at www.dioceseofmarquette.org.

QUOTES FROM POPE FRANCIS

Sterile and Incomplete Prayer

In our Christian life too, dear brothers and sisters, may prayer and action always be deeply united. A prayer that does not lead you to practical action for your brother—the poor, the sick, those in need of help, a brother in difficulty—is a sterile and incomplete prayer.

But, in the same way, when ecclesial service is attentive only to doing, things gain in importance, functions, structures, and we forget the centrality of Christ. When time is not set aside for dialogue with him in prayer, we risk serving ourselves and not God present in our needy brother and sister.

Reflection: Does your prayer involve both dialogue and practical action? Talk to Jesus. Listen to him. Write down what he is asking you to do, and then live it out.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION ALTAR SOCIETY MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Immaculate Conception Altar Society on Tuesday, November 13, at 4 p.m. at the Church. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

St. Ignace Right to Life Organization

St. Ignace Right to Life meets on the first Tuesday of every month in the Catholic Center on Spring Street.

Their next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 6th, at 7:00 p.m.

All are welcome.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION PARISHIONERS

If you know of a parishioner who is ill, homebound, or grieving, please call Polly at 643-8127 to have a card sent from Immaculate Conception Parish.

Thank you.

THANK YOU FROM FATHER JOHN ESSEL

To The Parishioners at St. Ignatius Loyola
and Immaculate Conception Parishes,

Thank you so much for the wonderful parties, well wishes, and cards that I received as I said good-bye to all of you. It has been a pleasure to serve as Associate Pastor for your parishes and I am so grateful for the support you have given me during this time. Please keep me in your prayers and be assured that you are in my prayers also. Blessings to all of you!

33 Days to Morning Glory

A new class is forming for 33 Days to Morning Glory. If you have already taken the class, it is time to renew your consecration. If you wish to join this study or revisit the book, please sign up at the back of the church since a class with the study booklet will be starting soon. If you are new to the program, please indicate that you are taking a book on the sign up sheet. Please begin reading your book by November 5th so the study can be completed by the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8th.

ADORATION AT ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA NOVEMBER 5, 2018

We will be having Adoration prior to Election Day on November 6th. Please try to attend during the hour of the first letter of your last name. If that time does not work, please attend in an hour that is best for you.
