Sanctity of Life Prayer

Father and maker of all,
 you adorn all creation
 with splendor and beauty,
 and fashion human lives
 in your image and likeness.
 Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain, your precious gift of life.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Words of Wisdom

January 16: "Fr. Baraga heard of great sufferings, particularly, a widow and her children. He procured medicines and set out in the dead of winter. When I found him he was in distress as his snowshoes had given out and if not for our meeting he would have perished."

The change in your pocket is making a difference for the children of Ghana!

To date we have collected $8,711.39 to help the children of Ghana. Please continue to put change in the container in the back of the church as we give it to Fr. Edward to send to his former parish in Ghana to help the children. Fr. Edward is very grateful and expresses his thanks!

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

The more you have, the more you are occupied, the less you give. But the less you have the more free you are. Poverty for us is a freedom. It is not mortification or penance. It is joyful freedom. There is no television here, no this, no that.

But we are perfectly happy.

Reflections with Pope Francis

Find the Door Open

In the Church, the God we encounter is not a merciless judge, but like the father in the Gospel parable. You may be like the son who left home, who sank to the depths, farthest from the Gospel. When you have the strength to say: I want to come home, you will find the door open. God will come to meet you because he is always waiting for you, God is always waiting for you, God embraces you, kisses you, and celebrates.

This is how the Lord is, that is how the tenderness of our heavenly Father is.

Reflection: Read the story of the Merciful Father in Luke 15:11-32. Imagine yourself as the Prodigal Son. What is God calling you to do?
