The Year Ahead

May God make your year a happy one!
 Not by shielding us from all sorrows and pain,
 But by strengthening us to bear it, as it comes;
 Not by making our path easy,
 But by making us sturdy to travel any path;
 Not by taking hardships from us,
 But by taking fear from our heart;
 Not by granting us unbroken sunshine,
 But by keeping our face bright, even in the shadows;
 Not by making our life always pleasant,
 But by showing us when people and their causes need us most,
 and by making us anxious to be there to help.
 God's love, peace, hope and joy to us for the year ahead.

Reflections with Pope Francis

Three Essential Words

Please, thank you, sorry. Three essential words!

We say please so as not to be forceful in family life: “May I please do this? Would you be happy if I did this?” We do this with a language that seeks agreement.

We say thank you, thank you for love! But be honest with me, how many times do you say thank you to your wife, and you to your husband? How many days go by without uttering this word, thanks!

And the last word: sorry. We all make mistakes, and on occasions someone gets offended in the marriage, in the family, and sometimes—I say—plates are smashed, harsh words are spoken, but please listen to my advice: don’t ever let the sun set without reconciling. Peace is made each day in the family: “Please forgive me,” and then you start over.

Reflection: The psalmist says, “Set a guard over my mouth, O Lord, keep watch over the door of my lips” (141:3). With our words we can quickly spread frustration and anger or mercy and love. Where have you failed with your words? To whom do you need to say, please, thank you, and sorry more often?

“Have patience with all things, but chiefly have patience with yourself. Do not lose courage in considering your own imperfections but instantly set about remedying them—every day begin the task anew.”
