Litany for Back to School

Jesus, as we begin again, stay close to us.
When our children are excited for what lies ahead.

Jesus, share in their joy.

When they are nervous about finding their place,
Jesus, remind them they belong first to you.

When friendships change,
Jesus, be their constant friend.

When they struggle to learn,
Jesus, give them perseverance.

When they succeed,
Jesus, teach them humility and gratitude.

When they fail,
Jesus, remind them that their worth has never
Depended upon achievement.

When they encounter someone who is lonely,
Jesus, give them the courage to notice and include.

When the pressure to fit in feels overwhelming,
Jesus, give them the courage to remain who You
Created them to be.

When mothers want to control every outcome,
Jesus, teach us to surrender.

When we worry about what we cannot see,
Jesus, help us trust You with our children.

For the teachers who will guide them,
Lord, give them wisdom and patience.

For the friendships that will shape them,
Lord, make them good and holy.

For the mistakes they will inevitably make,
Lord, use even these to draw them closer to You.

For every unknown this school year holds,
Jesus, we trust in You.

Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, wrap our children in your mantle and lead them always to you to your Son.

Amen.
